THREE PATERSON MEN CHARGED IN ARMED ROBBERY IN TEANECK

For Immediate Release:

October 20, 2026

Bergen County Prosecutor Mark Musella announced the arrests of 23-year-old ZAMAIR JOHNSON; 24-year-old ZAIER JONES; and 25-year-old JADEN NICKELS, all of Paterson, NJ, on charges stemming from an armed robbery incident. The arrests are the result of an investigation conducted by the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office, under the direction of Chief Jeff Angermeyer, and the Teaneck Police Department, under the direction of Chief Seth Kriegel.

On August 24, 2026, the Teaneck Police Department received a report of an alleged armed robbery that occurred the previous night. The Teaneck Police Department notified the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office Robbery-Homicide Division, and detectives joined the investigation alongside investigators from the Teaneck Police Department.

The months-long, joint investigation revealed that on Sunday, August 23, 2026, shortly after 11:00 p.m., the victim met with an acquaintance to purchase THC cartridges in Teaneck, NJ. The acquaintance arrived with two other individuals in a dark-colored vehicle. When the victim entered the vehicle, all three suspects pointed firearms at him, took U.S. currency, and threatened him while demanding that he digitally transfer additional funds using a mobile banking application. The suspects ultimately took the victim's cell phone before he was able to exit the vehicle, and they fled the area prior to law enforcement being notified. Detectives identified ZAMAIR JOHNSON, ZAIER JONES, and JADEN NICKELS as the suspects involved in the armed robbery.

On Monday, October 19, 2026, criminal charges were authorized against ZAMAIR JOHNSON, ZAIER JONES, and JADEN NICKELS. Specifically, JOHNSON, JONES, and NICKELS were each charged with first-degree robbery, N.J.S.A. 2C:15-1a(1); second-degree unlawful possession of a weapon, N.J.S.A. 2C:39-5b(1); second-degree possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose, N.J.S.A. 2C:39-4a(1); second-degree certain persons not to possess a firearm, N.J.S.A. 2C:39-7b(1); third-degree terroristic threats, N.J.S.A. 2C:12-3b; and fourth-degree aggravated assault by pointing a firearm, N.J.S.A. 2C:12-1b(4).

On the following day, Tuesday, October 20, 2026, with the assistance of the Bergen County Regional SWAT Team, detectives executed court-authorized search warrants at the respective residences of ZAMAIR JOHNSON, ZAIER JONES, and JADEN NICKELS in Paterson, NJ. Detectives also executed a court-authorized search warrant at a hotel in Wayne, NJ, where JOHNSON and NICKELS were staying. Consequently, all three defendants were located and arrested without incident. JOHNSON, JONES, and NICKELS were remanded to the Bergen County Jail pending a first appearance in Bergen County Superior Court in Hackensack, NJ.

Prosecutor Mark Musella states that the charges are merely accusations, and that the defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Prosecutor Musella would like to thank the Teaneck Police Department for its partnership and assistance throughout this investigation. Moreover, he thanks the Bergen County Regional SWAT Team for its assistance with the apprehension of the defendants. Finally, Prosecutor Musella thanks the Hasbrouck Heights Police Department; Paramus Police Department; Passaic County Prosecutor's Office; Paterson Police Department; Port Authority Police Department; Tenaflly Police Department; and Wayne Police Department for their individual and collective efforts in this case.

TARRYTOWN, NY MAN CHARGED IN PARAMUS FATAL HIT-AND-RUN

For Immediate Release:

October 20, 2026

Bergen County Prosecutor Mark Musella announced the arrest of 31-year-old ESTUARDO G. RODRIGUEZ of Tarrytown, NY, on charges stemming from a fatal hit-and-run motor vehicle crash. The arrest was the result of an investigation conducted by the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office, under the direction of Chief Jeff Angermeyer, and the Paramus Police Department, under the direction of Chief Robert M. Guidetti.

On Monday, October 19, 2026, at approximately 5:09 p.m., the Paramus Police Department responded to a hit-and-run motor vehicle crash on Route 17 South, in the area of the Westfield Garden State Plaza in Paramus, NJ. Upon arrival, responding officers located a female, later identified as 31-year-old Krisiann Reyes Rivera of the Bronx, NY, lying on the road with serious, life-threatening injuries. Officers quickly determined that she was struck by a vehicle that had left the scene. Ms. Rivera was transported by ambulance to HMM Hackensack University Medical Center and was ultimately pronounced deceased. Responding officers further determined that the fleeing vehicle may have been followed by witnesses of the crash.

The Paramus Police Department notified the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office Major Crimes Unit, at which time detectives from the Fatal Accident Investigation Unit and accident investigators from the Bergen County Fatal Accident Task Force responded to the scene to initiate a joint investigation into the circumstances of the collision. The investigation revealed that a motor vehicle crash had occurred between a 2024 Acura, which was towing a U-Haul trailer and operated by ESTUARDO G. RODRIGUEZ, and a 2015 Buick, in which Krisiann Reyes Rivera was a passenger. Following the initial collision between the vehicles, Ms. Rivera exited the Buick, approached the Acura, and struck one of the SUV's windows. RODRIGUEZ then accelerated and struck Ms. Rivera while driving away, knocking her to the ground and running her over with the rear tires of the trailer. RODRIGUEZ exited Route 17 South onto Garden State Plaza Boulevard within the property of the Westfield Garden State Plaza. Witnesses to the incident, who had followed the Acura, blocked it in traffic approximately a half-mile from the scene and flagged down a Paramus Police Officer, who then detained RODRIGUEZ. Investigators determined that RODRIGUEZ was operating the Acura while under the influence of alcohol and while driving with a suspended license.

As a result of the investigation, ESTUARDO G. RODRIGUEZ was charged with second-degree death by auto, N.J.S.A. 2C:11-5a; second-degree knowingly leaving the scene of an accident resulting in death, N.J.S.A. 2C:11-5.1; third-degree endangering an injured victim, N.J.S.A. 2C:12-1.2a; third-degree driving while suspended in a collision resulting in a death, N.J.S.A. 2C:40-22a; as well as multiple motor vehicle offenses including driving while intoxicated. RODRIGUEZ was remanded to the Bergen County Jail pending his first appearance in Bergen County Superior Court in Hackensack, NJ.

Prosecutor Mark Musella states that the charges are merely accusations, and that the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Prosecutor Musella would like to thank the Paramus Police Department and the Bergen County Sheriff's Office for their assistance in this investigation. He would also like to thank the Leonia Police Department and the East Rutherford Police Department, which both participate in the Bergen County Fatal Accident Task Force.

THREE CHARGED IN UPPER SADDLE RIVER ARSON-FOR-HIRE INVESTIGATION

For Immediate Release:

October 19, 2026

Bergen County Prosecutor Mark Musella announced the arrests of 54-year-old ANTHONY V. COVIELLO of Rumson, NJ; 66-year-old EMAD E. GERGES of Upper Saddle River, NJ; and 62-year-old JOSEPH VULPIS of Rumson, NJ, on charges stemming from an arson-for-hire investigation. The arrests were the result of an investigation conducted by the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office, under the direction of Chief Jeff Angermeyer, and the Upper Saddle River Police Department, under the direction of Chief Patrick Rotella.

On May 16, 2025, at approximately 2:23 p.m., the Upper Saddle River Police Department and the Upper Saddle River Fire Department responded to a residential structure fire on Lake Road in Upper Saddle River, NJ. Upon arrival, first responders observed the residence engulfed in flames. The fire was ultimately extinguished by the Upper Saddle River Fire Department, with mutual-aid assistance provided by fire departments from nearby municipalities. Following a preliminary investigation by fire officials, the cause and origin of the fire were classified as undetermined.

On April 27, 2026, the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office Arson Squad received information from the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office and the Rumson Police Department regarding the fire that occurred on Lake Road in Upper Saddle River, NJ. Consequently, detectives from the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office Arson Squad initiated a joint investigation with the Upper Saddle River Police Department, while assisted by the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office and the Rumson Police Department.

The months-long joint investigation revealed that ANTHONY V. COVIELLO and JOSEPH VULPIS were hired by EMAD E. GERGES to intentionally set fire to the residence on Lake Road in Upper Saddle River in May 2025. Detectives determined that, on May 16, 2025, COVIELLO and VULPIS entered the residence and utilized an accelerant, along with a homemade ignitor, to set fire to the attic of the home.

As a result of the investigation, on Friday, October 2, 2026, detectives from the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office located and arrested ANTHONY V. COVIELLO at his residence in Rumson, NJ. On that same day, JOSEPH VULPIS surrendered to authorities at the Englishtown Police Department in Englishtown, NJ. COVIELLO and VULPIS were each charged with first-degree arson for hire, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-1d; second-degree aggravated arson, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-1a(2); second-degree conspiracy to commit aggravated arson, N.J.S.A. 2C:5-2a(1)/2C:17-1a(2); third-degree arson, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-1b(2); third-degree criminal mischief, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-3a(1); and fourth-degree failure to control or report a fire, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-1c(2). Both men were remanded to the Bergen County Jail, made a first appearance in Bergen County Superior Court in Hackensack, NJ, and were subsequently released pending further court action.

On Friday, October 16, 2026, EMAD E. GERGES was located and arrested with assistance from the Saddle River Police Department. GERGES was charged with first-degree arson for hire, N.J.S.A. 2C:17-1d; and second-degree conspiracy to commit aggravated arson, N.J.S.A. 2C:5-2a(1)/2C:17-1a(2). GERGES was remanded to the Bergen County Jail, made a first appearance in Bergen County Superior Court in Hackensack, NJ, and was subsequently released pending further court action.

Prosecutor Musella states that the charges are merely accusations, and that all of the defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Prosecutor Musella would like to thank the Upper Saddle River Police Department, the Upper Saddle River Fire Department, and the mutual-aid fire departments for their assistance with this incident. Moreover, Prosecutor Musella thanks and recognizes the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office and the Rumson Police Department for their coordination and assistance throughout this case. Lastly, he thanks the Englishtown Police Department, the Fair Haven Police Department, and the Saddle River Police Department for their individual and collective assistance with this investigation.

HACKENSACK WOMAN CHARGED WITH AGGRAVATED ASSAULT

For Immediate Release:

October 16, 2026

Bergen County Prosecutor Mark Musella announced the arrest of 52-year-old ROHWENIVEN BACANI of Hackensack, NJ, on the charge of aggravated assault. The arrest was the result of an investigation conducted by the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office, under the direction of Chief Jeff Angermeyer, and the Leonia Police Department, under the direction of Chief Scott Tamagny.

On Friday, September 11, 2026, the Leonia Police Department received information regarding a resident who was already hospitalized and being treated following a serious medical episode that may have been the result of a poisoning. The Leonia Police Department notified the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office Major Crimes Unit, as well as the Robbery-Homicide Division, and a joint investigation was initiated. Detectives learned that the victim, who was hospitalized for several days and now recovering, believed she had been poisoned by an acquaintance, later identified as ROHWENIVEN BACANI.

A weeks-long, joint investigation revealed that the victim had agreed to meet ROHWENIVEN BACANI at a restaurant in Fort Lee, NJ, on Tuesday, September 8, 2026. The meeting was arranged so that the victim and BACANI could discuss unauthorized banking activity that the victim detected within her financial accounts, to which BACANI had shared access.

Detectives determined that when the victim arrived at the restaurant, ROHWENIVEN BACANI was already present and had a cup of tea waiting for the victim. The victim drank some of the beverage but did not finish it after detecting an unusual taste. Subsequently, the victim collapsed while leaving the restaurant and woke up in the hospital with no knowledge of how she arrived. Ultimately, the investigation revealed that BACANI had poisoned the victim with a controlled dangerous substance, namely a benzodiazepine, added to the tea.

As a result of the investigation, on Wednesday, October 14, 2026, ROHWENIVEN BACANI was charged with third-degree aggravated assault, N.J.S.A. 2C:12-1b(7). The following day, Thursday, October 15, 2026, detectives from the Bergen County Prosecutor's Office and the Leonia Police Department located BACANI outside of her residence in Hackensack, NJ, and placed her under arrest. BACANI was remanded to the Bergen County Jail pending a first appearance in Bergen County Superior Court in Hackensack, NJ.

Prosecutor Musella states that the charge is merely an accusation, and that the defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. He would like to thank the Leonia Police Department for its partnership and assistance throughout this investigation. Moreover, Prosecutor Musella thanks the Fort Lee Police Department and the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office for their assistance with this investigation.
